

Kindergarten Education Scheme
School-based Learning Activity of Chinese Culture
Display Form

Pok Oi Hospital Mrs Yam Wing Yin Kindergarten

Name of School

2025-2026

School Year

K3

Grade Level

Name of Activity

Blue and White Porcelain Painting Workshop

Objective(s)

- To appreciate the unique blue-and-white artistic charm and decorative beauty of traditional Chinese porcelain.
- To allow young children to experience the joy of traditional Chinese ceramic culture through hands-on painting of blue-and-white patterns.
- To foster children's observation, attention to detail, eye-hand coordination, and visual arts expression.

Brief Descriptions:

1. The instructor introduces the history and origins of blue-and-white porcelain, guiding young children to recognize its classic feature of blue patterns on a white background.
2. The instructor displays and leads children in appreciating traditional pieces carrying auspicious meanings (such as, porcelain bowls and vases featuring patterns like dragons, phoenixes, auspicious clouds, and flowers).
3. The instructor demonstrates basic line work, accentuation techniques, and key precautions for painting blue-and-white patterns.
4. Children experience painting their own unique patterns on ceramic items.
5. Conclusion: Children display their artwork and share their creative process and thoughts on the painting experience.

Record of Activity (E.g. Children's Work / Photos / Videos of the activity)

